NEWSLETTER December 2012

ZE'EV KOLMAN'S MESSAGE

HAPPY HOLIDAYS!!! As we approach the end of another year and the beginning of the holiday season, I wish for you everything that you wish for yourself and your loved ones.

2012 is nearly behind us. There were many bad times for the planet and its people. The earth was screaming, and human beings were screaming. But I wish that 2013 will bring us peace and prosperity, and that all the planet and its inhabitants will be balanced going forward, leaving pain behind. Let us remember that our tendency is to become what we repeatedly tell ourselves. Therefore, why not create a more positive energy flow by transforming what we traditionally conceive as new year's resolutions into powerful belief statements we can tell ourselves every day? "I am loving and kind." "I put only healthy foods into my body." "I am being the best human I know." "I am healthy and well in mind, body, and spirit." We can utilize our belief systems for healthy immune systems as well as our faith.

Blessings to all for a loving and joyful New Year!

About Ze'ev Kolman

Ze'ev helps nature heal people by projecting his “bioenergetic” force, or Life Force, from his hands to the patient's energy field, in order to correct the imbalance causing the disease. Ze'ev likens it to activating countless acupuncture points, as well as chakras, simultaneously.

His advocates include physicians, scholars, and celebrities around the world including some of Europe's royal families and Hollywood's most prominent stars.

There have been many problems – such as cancer, ruptured vertebral discs, heart problems, some very serious cases – healed when establishment doctors had given up hope.

According to Professor Hans Holzer, Ph.D., author of The Secret of Healing: The Healing Powers of Ze'ev Kolman, “Nothing in what Ze'ev Kolman does is in the least impossible or contrary to natural law. It's just that he has this physical energy in his body and dispenses it through his hands.” The principle of bioenergetic power is not new, but Holzer explains that “Ze'ev Kolman possesses more of that power than any man alive today.”

Excerpt from Ze'ev Kolman's Forthcoming Book: Meridians

Just as the aura might be considered the body's protective energy field, and chakras the energy receiving stations, meridians are the body's energy highways. Their function is to distribute energy along an intricate set of pathways. Eastern medicine, with its system of acupuncture and acupressure points, offers a complete healing modality based on the use of meridians – or energy pathways.

I see meridians as fluorescent strands, bundled together in groups of five. They resemble sheaves of shining light, which connect the crown chakra to the Third Eye, the heart, and so on. They move down to the limbs and through them to the hands and feet. Here is where they divide into groups of five meridians for each of the hands and feet, where all 20 digits (fingers and toes) have small chakras.

Healing of a Heart as documented by Dr Valentin Fuster in letter to Dr Harvey Klein

I had the pleasure to see Mr. Ullah-Khan today for cardiovascular follow up. In brief, as you know, Mr. Ullah-Khan underwent directional coronary atherectomy, and because of recurrent stenosis he underwent laser angioplasty. I have the following comments.

A number of weeks ago, Mr. Khan had atypical pain which was unpredictable and, therefore, probably there was a component of vasospasm. Non conventional therapy by an Israeli therapist [Ze'ev Kolman] has certainly improved Mr. Khan significantly from the point of view of his psychological status and from the fact that he does not have any more angina despite walking five miles a day at a reasonable speed.

A gated exercise test, just performed at New York Hospital, did not reveal ventricular dysfunction on exercise. Ejection fraction at rest was 53%, after 12 minutes (75 watts) it was 78% (better than prior to PTCA). I will take conservative approach.

[Says Irshad Ullah-Khan, this proves the effectiveness of Ze'ev Kolman's treatment.]

It Is the Festival of Hannukah, and a Man Is Dying

by Irshad Ullah-Khan

It is the festival of Hannukah, and a man is dying,
And he does not know, and he does not know.
He knows not that the sand has run its time
And the last grain of sand is a breath away.
It is the festival of Hannukah, and a light has come,
And he does not know, and he does not know,
That Ze'ev Kolman has come to save his soul.
It is the festival of Hannukah,
 it is the festival of Hannukah,
And who will believe that when I tell the world
That from the border of death he brought me life.

Long Distance Healing Experience by Gaby E.

I had a wonderful experience with Ze'ev and his long distance healing. As I am in California, Ze'ev told me that with the time difference I would be asleep when he would be tuning in for our session. At 4am I awoke spontaneously feeling my whole body wrapped in a blanket of peace. I felt like every cell was vibrating in joy and I knew that deep cellular transmission was taking place. I lay suspended in a state between waking and sleep consciousness for the entire session. I awoke in the morning refreshed and felt rejuvenated and totally symptom free from the stomach cramps I had been having from food poisoning. Later in the day I went for a walk and everything seemed more crisp and alive somehow. Thank you, Ze'ev for being a channel for this wonderful grace!

Testimonial of the Month: by Renee W.

“When I first came into Ze'ev's office, I was using a cane. Without it I would have fallen over due to hip pain and disc herniations. The pain was excruciating. Walking was very difficult. During our session, I felt electrical activity throughout my body although Ze'ev did not touch me. I felt pain exit through the right side of my body as it was leaving me. I feel happy. I can walk without my cane as I leave this office. My depression is gone. May the angels continue to guide you in your work. God Bless You.”
