

Ze'ev Kolman

Bio-Energetic Healer

THIS MONTH'S MESSAGE FROM ZE'EV

Sunshine and Rainbows to everyone! I hope you are all taking the time to smell the roses along our journey of life. Remember to drink enough water and use sunscreen during this season. There are usually more occasions, appointments and parties than at other times of the year, so keep in mind that quality is more important than quantity. It's a good idea to not exert yourself to the point of exhaustion, and to maintain mindfulness about your mind and body.

If you feel positive about the levels of stress in your life and your energy is good, then it's okay to do more. If you feel stressed out and life is simply moving too fast for you, reconsider your plans. It's better to manage the pace of your life than to try to fit everything into a short span of time. Your social calendar doesn't need to be filled to the point that you feel more like you wasted your vacation and didn't even get to do what you wanted.

We are using another technique for distance or absentee healing this month. Using a glass of water as a medium, we can experience an enhanced level of connection. Call for more information! I have used this technique before and found it to be a useful alternative to an office visit. There is a transfer of energy into the water, and you receive it when you drink it.

Group Healings & Lectures

We usually conduct group healings every 2 weeks. Once a month we have lectures, which is a simple way to experience and learn more about bio-energetic healing without spending a lot of money. The lectures cover Healing, Spirituality, the Aura and Chakras. Following the lecture, an intense group healing meditation is conducted.

The Individual's Aura— or Template

Sometimes a healer creates his or her primary healing effect by supplying particular frequencies of etheric (higher) bio-energies to a client's etheric body. Mr. Kolman refers to this as the aura.

The aura is a holographic bio-energetic template surrounding the individual—a type of spatial wave guide that assists the molecular/cellular systems of the body to achieve proper organization, orchestration and energetic balance.

If the template is healthy, the body resides in a state of health. When the etheric body is distorted and its organized patterns become disrupted by a wide variety of influences, the physical body slowly follows suit by manifesting illness.

The organization of the aura controls the orderly cellular behavior of the body's systems. It is the aura of the etheric body to which Mr. Kolman actually directs his healing bio-energy. When the influence of the etheric body has totally ceased, as in death, component molecular parts return to the chaotic disorder of inorganic matter.

The individual aura is the wave guide that controls the flow of life energy into the body. Patterns of illness occur at energetic levels before they become manifest at cellular levels. Dysfunctional subtle energetic changes in the etheric body may precede physical/cellular changes of an overt illness by weeks to months. Mr. Kolman can see that effect among some of his clients, and is able to predict upcoming symptoms of sub-clinical illness by reading one's aura.

ple on their birthday. If you need a blessing or know someone who does, please e-mail their name and location. If you celebrate your birthday in July or August, remember to meditate at Midnight (EST) on your birthday by focusing both on your physical intention and on the healer, Ze'ev Kolman. His healing energy will be sent to you.

Distance Healing

Distance healing is performed while you sleep or rest. When your body is resting, your chakras—your energy centers—open up. This is when Ze'ev can easily transmit electromagnetic energy from his mind into your energy field for the purpose of healing. You only need to know the time for your body to be "tuned into" the same wavelength during the distance healing session.

Ze'ev recommends distance healing for clients who are too far away or are unable to come to the office because of a busy schedule or illness. Distance healing is also very effective. It is just as powerful as a private session. In fact, it can even be stronger because the body is very open to receiving energy while resting. Some clients also experience tingling sensation during distance healing, or a wave of heat, while others experience no physical presence. The effects are the same. Sometimes a client will awaken during the time of the healing. If this happens to you, stay in bed in a relaxed state.

Distance healing works for many, but not for everyone. It depends on how long you have had the condition, how open you are to healing, and also how well your body receives the energy for healing. Here are the requirements for Distance Healing to be really successful.

Distance Healing Requirements

1. Photograph
2. Complete address
3. Telephone numbers
4. Date of birth
5. Direction of your head while sleeping. Is it facing north, south, east or west?
6. A list of the conditions you want to focus on.

Our thoughts are like radio waves that can be sent and transmitted beyond our physical location and received at the other end—provided there is a receiver tuned into the right wavelength. This energy is transmitted through the force of my thoughts to the client who opens his or her channels to the proper wavelength and absorbs the energy regardless of the physical distance between us.

Testimonial

I had a big ball under my left arm and it was very painful to the touch. After my first session with Mr. Kolman, the ball and the pain were completely gone. When I saw that it was completely healed, I scheduled a second session with him to work on my back. I have a herniated disc, and pain in my back from breast cancer scar tissue. —R.A.

During a routine gynecological visit this year, an ultrasound revealed a suspicious cyst on my right ovary. A more sophisticated ultrasound test confirmed that it had a solid component, which was worrisome. The doctor said, "It could go either way (whether it was benign or not), but it will most likely not go away on its own."

My referring gynecologist suggested it was a sign that this was found by accident. He recommended that it be removed: "the other ovary will pick up the slack anyway." I wasn't convinced. She began to schedule an appointment with an oncologist.

As the reality of the situation began to take hold, I found myself filled with fear. At the same time, I realized proactive measures could be taken to activate my own healing ability, and I immediately thought of Ze'ev. I had seen him many years prior, also because of an ovarian cyst that was not considered dangerous. It had disappeared as a result of my visit to him.

I intentionally scheduled my first visit with him just before I had an appointment with the oncologist at the NYC Cancer Center. The session with Ze'ev was so powerful and mind/body-altering, that the appointment with the oncologist seemed more surreal and manageable. I was able to keep a distance from the feelings at the Center, complete with a fancy shop for buying wigs and head coverings. After reading the test and examining me, I was told again that it could be benign, but there was no way of being certain. Recommendation: Have both ovaries removed (why not, since I was edging toward menopause and was not going to have any children anyway!). After my questioning, she agreed to remove one. I suggested waiting and she agreed that another ultrasound would be done in 6 weeks. She reluctantly agreed as she explained that waiting could mean the difference between having or not having chemotherapy should it turn out to be malignant.

One week later, I went for a second opinion at Beth Israel. The oncologist walked in the room, shook my hand, and said, "You need your ovary removed." During the exam he said that if I were his wife, he would suggest the same thing, as if that would comfort and convince me. I had started a juice fast for cleansing—as suggested by a naturopath—and was trying hard not to cave in to another doctor who put so much fear into me about ovarian cancer, no alternatives existing other than immediate surgery, and which meant removal of at least one ovary. I left his office with the same conclusion: I would wait and have the repeat test and not jump into surgery.

I continued to see Ze'ev for healing sessions during the following weeks leading up to my next ultrasound. The sensations became more and more powerful as my body opened up even more than I imagined possible. After a couple of weeks, when I left his office, I felt a great shift—not only in how I physically saw things—everything became much clearer. I noticed that my posture was straighter and stronger as I walked with a new confidence. My fears were replaced by a new attitude and optimism that the cyst would disappear. It was just a matter of when. During this time, I began to practice visualizations, combined with colon cleansing and maintaining a healthier diet. There were a couple of sessions when I felt that I completely left my body, and was no longer connected to it at the end of the healing. Apparently, my body had indeed levitated from the table.

On the morning leading up to the ultrasound and during the procedure itself, Ze'ev performed absent healing on me. The results of the test were unknown to me, because the technician was not allowed to discuss it. However, I kept questioning her because I sensed that she could not find the cyst I was describing to her. The test result revealed that there was "nothing there." The cyst had disappeared within those 6 weeks. I was overjoyed and stunned. The second oncologist I saw denied ever telling me to have my ovary removed and said, "I hope I never see you again." Likewise! I was filled with such elation and gratitude to Ze'ev, I immediately called the office with the wonderful news.
